Chamber Sees Likely Train Service Soon

Passenger train service direct from Campbell by way of Vasona Junction and Los Altos will be likely if a proposal before the Public Utilities Commission is approved, it was reported Tuesday evening by Sam Cava, president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Cava said that Louis Chess general passenger agent at San Francisco for Southern Pacific, J. J. McDonald and other officials had confirmed this interest when they were in Campbell Monday to inquire concerning extent of patronage from here.

Next luncheon meeting on April 20 is to have Clyde Arbuckle, Santa Clara County historian as the speaker to tell of local conditions in the days of the Old Settlers.

Named on a nominating committee for four new directors to be elected in April were Jaoquin Payne, Dr. Robert Jasmine and N. W. Schoenberger. Terms of five members of the directorate continue for one year while terms of four expire. Election is for two year term.

County Planners Study C-2 Zoning For Campbell Ave.

The County Planning Commission has taken under advisement the application of Mary Jo Miles of 314 S. 17th Street, San Jose for zoning the southeast corner of Campbell and Burbano avenue, so that an accurate site development plan may be submitted. This site which is one block west of the Double AA Market is just out of the Campbell city limits.

New Cop Hired

Police Chief Locke has announced another new man John David Morgan, 24, has been hired to replace Jerry O'Connell who is resigning March 31 to accept other employment. The new officer will assume his duties April 1.

Morgan is employed by the Mt. View Police Department at the present time. He attended Kent State University at Kent, Ohio, for two years and has served four years in the Navy. He is married and has one child.

California has a greater variety of valuable mineral deposits in workable form than any area of equal size in the world.

Dover Parents Ired By Proposed High Tension Line

Ernest Ralph, representing the newly formed Hamilton Area Improvement Association, appeared Monday night before the prents of Dover Home and School Club to present a problem which parents have termed a mencae to the lives and safety of their children. This was in regard to the proposed P. G.&E. high tension power poles which would measure about twenty five feet in diameter at the base and rise to one-hundred and twenty feet in height.

Ralph's purpose he said was to enlist the aid of Dover School parents in fighting this since the proposed towers will be constructed within a half a block of the school. He explained that practically the entire student-body will pass these poles once a day and that he as a parent felt they would be a hazard to the very curious children. He also said that kite flying would be a thing of the past in this vicinity because of the danger involved and that children would no longer be able to enjoy their television programs.

At this point Burch Calkins asked for a voice vote to oppose P. G.&E. in this matter. Duane Beaubien, principal of Dover School, expressed his sentiments regarding the safety of his school children and specifically said that he felt it would be an extremely attractive nuisance, and also that it may be necessary to actually have a patrol to cover these poles, or towers, when the children leave school to be certain that they are not used for jungle-gyms.

After Beaubien spoke, parents voted to send a letter of protest to the Public Utilities Commission and to Charles Black, who heads P. G. & E., stating that as parents of children of Dover School they were concerned for the welfare of the children if proposed lines go in as planned. They further stated that as a group they are well aware of the necessity of power lines, but, also feel that since there are several alternative routes available, for the health and welfare of their youngsters some other means should be employed.

In an interview Tuesday morning Mrs. James T. Thorne, of Cabana Drive, said that her conversation with a P. G. & E. official concerning re-routing or burying the proposed line was not encouraging and that he stated a school or children would be no deterrent to the routing of the line.

Orrin Accardi To Head Jr Chamber

In a special called meeting last Monday evening Orrin Accardi was elected president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce on a White ballot to complete the term of Ed Laney who resigned due to the pressure of business.

PLANNERS GETTING MAP TONIGHT OF NEW 144-ACRE SUBDIVISION

Planners tonight will receive a tentative map of the Los Ranchitos subdivision of 144 acres showing how it is proposed to extend city limits to half mile west of San Tomas Aquina Road along the north side of West Campbell avenue from Victor Avenue with a rectangular bite about one-third of a mile wide and a mile long from Latimer to Payne avenue and being east of Clarit avenue.

Planners will also hold a hearing on application of Philip Dick Lively for a variance on a side yard, lot 77 of Kuehnis Estates, a hearing to zone at R-1 the new annexed Baroni-Payne subdivision, hearing of Leo and Barbara Agate and Pearl Schultz for rear yard variances on the Sheffield avenue properties, and hearing on application for variance by Joe Martin involving five lots in Westchester Park.

Many Matters Before Council

Million Dollar Annex Project For Campbell

Resolutions were approved by the city council Monday evening setting hearing dates for April 25 on applications of Irving Dunn and H. E. Goss to annex their 13.2 acres extending from Rincon and Virginia avenues to the San Tomas Aquina Creek, and for a 144 acre annexation of Taomino, Manfre, Rutherdale and others extending west of San Tomas Aquino avenue and north to Payne avenue to be known as the Los Ranchitos subdivision, a Jules Duc development. Another proposed annexation of the eight acres east of the San Jose-Los Gatos road south of Campbell avenue by J. F. Richman did not have a hearing date set as the applicant indicated additional acreage would be included, extending to Leigh avenue. Another annexation of a 17.2 acre tract extending to Virginia avenue from present city limits between Rincon and Budd was submitted for processing.

Pierce Davies, San Jose planner told the council when the matter of the Los Ranchitos subdivision was presented that it covers lands with a $440,000 assessed valuation and that when improvements are made preparatory to building, its assessable value would be about three quarters of a million dollars. A 55 acre tract on the northwest corner of Campbell avenue of John W. Rutherdale will be used in part as a shopping center. Plans call for 231 new homes in this subdivision and 50 new homes in the other subdivision.

City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan reported having received a $348.61 refund representing 37% on the workman compensation in that but one accident claim has been filed by the city during the year, Mayor Richard Morton commending city employes for this good record in safety prevention.

Emory Garrison filed an appeal with the council over the planning commission's recent action denying his application for rezoning property fronting Winchester Road north of Latimer avenue from R-2 to C-1 so that he can erect a 7-unit store building having 56,000 square feet of floor space. Mayor Morton said this was the first appeal to the council of a commission decision and that it seems policy action is important as it will set a pattern for future appeals. It was decided that the council sit as a board of appeal to hear all points by the Garrisons at the next regular meeting.

A petition bearing 268 signatures of property owners in the vicinity of Hamilton Square was presented by Herbert Fewtrell seeking protection against proposed installation of PG&E towers over their property feeling it should follow a new route or be buried. Nestor Barrett, planning consultant said he had received a map proposing the line pass over Leigh avenue to the Keesling ranch within 400 feet of the Dover School, but Mayor Morton said there is nothing before the council, and until an application is made for a use permit, no official action can be taken.

"Even though nothing is before the council on this, we are aware of the situation and interest of the PG&E, and have started conferences of Campbell, San Jose and County planning commissions to see if an alternate route can be made, and we have even explored the possibility of an ordinance that would call for the line being put underground, and if we can enact that, Campbell will be one of the first cities to have such an ordinance" Mayor Morton said. He said the council was gratified to have such a fine lot of people attend this meeting on a matter which is of general concern.

Fewtrell said aerial pictures taken before the line was mapped, when Hamilton Square was undeveloped and there was nothing but orchard lands.

Som O'Brien, deputy district attorney asked in behalf of other property owners in vicinity of Westchester Park and Coral Manor that condition of Cypress avenue be restored at least as good as at present, by developers proposing to use an excavator to lay a sewer line vicinity of Bucknall and Campbell avenues. Council suggested developers might share cost of paving if assessment district was formed.

The council sent back to the planning commission a proposed resolution to simplify hearing dates on variances because it abolished publication of a hearing notice.

Matter of how far the city can go on present budget to have sewers flushed and made free of rodent will be acted on at the next council meeting. An amending ordinance establishing business license fees was adopted, the change relating particularly to pet hospitals and veterinarians.

Police Chief Robert Locke said he had inspected the creek where rubbish had allegedly been burned causing smoke over McBain, Fewtrell and other avenues and City Attorney Joseph Bonacina may be called on to institute abatement.

John David Morgan of Mountain View was approved to join the police force April 1, replacing Jerry O'Connell who resigned to join the sheriff's department. Morgan had two years experience in Hi-Y work and was senior advisor in one of the summer camps. Chief Locke said the new officer expects to buy a home in Campbell, his wife having grown up here.

Seems that the new police car will come from the Milpitas plant but it hasn't arrived yet, Chief Locke said in being authorized to have some equipment transferred to it. The sum of $350 for the Auxiliary police is to be made available to defray costs of uniforms and other costs, but Mayor Morton said he would like to see some program for expenditure set up.

Council expects to consider a retirement system and possibly civil service as soon as other paper work is cleared by the city attorney.

ROTARY CLUB CELEBRATES ITS 7th ANNIVERSARY

The Campbell Rotary Club held a joint celebration of its seventh anniversary and the Golden anniversary of Rotary International with a dinner dance at Mariani's last Thursday evening. Members and their wives assembled in the banquet rooms for an informal get together before the dinner and the spirit of comaraderie prevailed.

Following the dinner tribute was paid to past presidents and they were presented with plaques. Honored guest was Mrs. Laura (James B.) Arends, widow of the first president James B. Arends who served 1948-49. She accepted the plaque in his name. Other past presidents honored were Forrest A. Reese William A. Maderis, Homer H. Hyde, Joaquin Payne, and Emerson M. Arends.

A musical program was presented by Westerners with Joyce Gomes and Willis Dahl; piano selections by Steve Janzen; and vocal selections by Elaine Grizilo. Joyce Gomes acted as Mistress of Ceremonies.

After conclusion of the program music for dancing was provided by an orchestra.

CAMPBELL BOYS SEEK TO BREAK A WORLD RECORD

Two Campbell boys, Bob Hoffman and Robert Herman, members of the Campbell Sky Pilots, told directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night that they are making an engine feeding device which they will use sometime in June in an attempt to break the world's sustained flying time for a miniature airplane. The present record is eleven and one half hours made by two boys in New Jersey.

Hoffman said they will work in 15 minute shifts and expect not only to break the record but to run it out to 24-hours because their re-fueling system, a weak spot in other demonstrations, seems good enough to meet the test. Dave Nelson will work with the team as mechanic and that will be all the rules will permit.

The executive board made a recommendation that the by-laws of the organization be amended to include both corresponding and recording secretaries among officers and a motion to that effect was carried.

Jean Arnold, A. S. Cakebread and Oreon Keesler all of the county school department held a panel discussion on the topic "Teen-Agers: Saints or Sinners".

PRUNE GROWERS HERE GET $300,000

Distribution of over $300,000 to grower members in the Campbell area of the California Prune and Apricot Growers Association is to be made this month according to Director Joseph Gomes, local representative of the Campbell-Los Gatos Prune and Apricot Association. There will be over three million dollars distributed to the Grower Members throughout California, and of this sum $2,250,000 will represent a second progress payment on the 1954 prune crop deliveries.

Over $870,000 is to be returned to Growers in Equity Payments and interest. The Equity distribution will include retirement of the equities now due plus 20 per cent of equities which will not be due until next year.

Gomes said prune checks were sent growers on Tuesday and that the equity payment checks will be sent March 31. The March 1 payment to local growers is about $60,000 more than they received last year. The price structure for the two years was about the same.

'Drums Of Death'

SENIOR PLAY OPENS TONIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

The Senior Class of 1955 in presenting "Drums of Death" tonight and tomorrow night in the high school auditorium, offers a mystery in every sense of the word. The cast numbers thirteen, the script promises many bloodchilling surprises. Some aspects of the melodrama are so mysterious that their import won't be known until the play is under way. The curtain is to rise promptly at 8 p. m. both evenings.

The plot has three ladies (Jean Rafferty, Lois Fairbanks, and Len Becker) visiting a weird Louisiana swamp mansion, because they have been ordered to do so. Upon arriving they are surprised by an annoyed Mr. Harley (Orrin Cross) who informs them that no such order has been given, and that the Bayou bungalow's lord has suspiciously disappeared. The three ladies are willing to leave but are forbidden to depart by a huge native servant (Maurice Nelson). They are thus held captive for "a dreadful twelve hours." Their "bad time" also involves a ghostlike housekeeper (Karla Edsinger) who never sleeps, a doorbell ringing doctor (Darrel McLeod), n octoroon (Paula Morse) who can see in the night, plus varied black shapes (Jim Peterson, Ron Todd and Betty Baldridge) who come through the walls to kill.

Other members of the all senior cast include Linda Curtis and Bob Neily. Some of the actors are doubling as technicians and members of the stage crew. Specialists Boyd Fair, Ray Shanrock, and Jim Peterson promise that the whole auditorium will be wired for sound and that the auditorium will assume a total blackout for the first time. In charge of properties is Charles Womer whose job it is to make a ghost appear and disappear in less than a second's elapsed time. Betty Baldridge is one of the play's stars, wrote up publicity, helped design the programs, and serves on the makeup crew. Twenty-three other non-acting seniors helped with set designing and the producing of necessary properties like the hairy arm constructed by Joy Deach. Richard Rice and Alla Farmer painted the Death Chest and Jon Wilson a meaningful skull. Executive director of the production is Connie Coombs.

In 1949, a picture of George Washington was borrowed from the superintendent's office for use in the senior play of that year. It has found a prominent place in every senior play since, and is said to "move" in "Drums of Death". African horror masks were designed and painted by Alla Farmer, Masako Kawauchi, Francine Baylor, Leanne Buchanan, and Paula Morse.

CLEANING THE CREEK

For some time there have been reports about rubbish being burned in the Los Gatos Creek just south of Hamilton avenue. Smoke hovers over the homes to the east as a result. Police Chief Robert Locke on Monday reported to the city council that tree and brush burning has been going on there.

Further south along the creek one might also find that old car chasis have been dumped in the bed giving an unsightly appearance.

This is getting to be the front door to Campbell for those coming here from the Los Gatos-San Jose Highway. A move by any organization or constituted authority to prevent further dumping and burning of rubbish or the dumping of car frames in Los Gatos Creek will merit commendation. That which is already visible should, by some means, be removed.

There is nothing so impressive to a city of its homes as its front door and civic pride alone will see that it is clean and attractive.

CONSERVATION FOR TOMORROW

Conservation of our natural resources is one of the major problems confronting our generation and the way the west is developing it should be worked at all the year.

Carl Wente, president of the California State Chamber of Commerce, says that he often thinks about all the people who have come to California to enjoy our climate, participate in our prosperity and look at the wonders that nature has given us, yet did not bring one drop of water, nor a single bird, nor a single fish, duck or wild animal of any kind. He says that more than ever it is necessary for us to conserve our natural resources, retain an adequate water supply and sufficient fish and game to take care of the California of tomorrow.

THE FIGHT FOR HETCHY

San Francisco is sending a strong team to Washington next week to see what can be done about a bill introduced by Congressman Clair Engle which they claim would deprive the city of valuable power sites on the Tuolumne river. Dion Holm, city attorney, says Congress granted water rights and incidental power rights to the city in 1913 on this river and that industry has been developed for many millions of dollars as a result.

Congressman Engle says the power site would produce cash to put water on some of the Tuolumne County lands which is quite the reverse of earlier Congressional action. Why, today they move water for irrigation purposes for miles and Engle knows that. It would be quite difficult to move $300,000,000 worth of industrial buildings.

STRAWBERRY CONCENTRATE

A government laboratory at Albany has found a way to make a sparkling clear frozen strawberry juice concentrate that will not jell so that berries too small for marketing may be used. Concentrates to 12-fold volume can be made. Although such berries have been made into single strength frozen juice for sale to jelly manufacturers, the high water content has resulted in high shipping and storage costs. Looks now as if there might be a good market for the small berries, but growers here still find that the larger size berry is easier to harvest and to pack.

A CONGRESSMAN SPEAKS

Congressman Charles Gubser in a letter from Washington told the Press yesterday that he felt the $20 income tax credit passed by the House three weeks ago was a cheap political trick. It was passed before a single appropriation bill and before Congressmen knew how much money would be needed for next year. It will cause us to go further into the red and borrow from the future generations to pay a dividend to the present one. Gubser said further that it will cause inflation and cause the wage earners' dollar to buy a lot less. This 37 cents per week won't help the "little fellow." If it causes higher prices, it will actually hurt him. True, a tax cut was granted last year when there was a deficit, but then there was danger of recession and today that no longer exists. Gubser's letter states.

When President Eisenhower said he hoped a tax cut would be possible next year, the opposition with an eye to 1956 election wanted to beat him to the punch and get credit for a tax cut whether or not it was good for the country, the letter concludes.

THE GUARANTEED WAGE—RIGHT HERE!

Organized labor has contributed many benefits to the working man's lot. By raising the standards of a particular group, it also forces standards up in other areas. However, organized labor in the automobile manufacturing field has come up with a plan that, if successful, would be a nightmare to almost any type of business. We in Santa Clara County are even more concerned than in the past, due to the presence here of one of the industry's giants.

The "Guaranteed Annual Wage"—labor's latest lollipop, will provide anything but a sugary flavor for industry. For the guaranteed annual wage to be a reality, there must be a guaranteed annual profit for business — and things just don't pan out that way. All businessmen enter their chosen field in order to make a profit (after taxes). Some do—and many do not. The only way that a guaranteed annual wage could ever be just would be for it to be guaranteed for everybody—not just a chosen few. The only way to guarantee a wage is to guarantee profits. The only way every business could show a profit would be for the Government to take from the profits of the rich corporations and fill the deficits of poor ones. A fine situation that would be! Sounds like Socialism to us!

The thought passes through our mind that if anyone is going to have that kind of a pipe dream, they had better plant a field of poppies!

The Campbell Gambol

IF YOU Are a parent and live in the Moreland School district you may have found it necessary in the last couple of weeks to be a little more careful about traffic violations on account a miniature highway has been set up over there in the kindergarten play area and it is doing such a wonderful job of teaching the five and six year olds riding tricycles, scooters and wagons just how and why these laws should be obeyed . . . . numerous parents have been to the school to watch how it is conducted some saying that their offsprings have been telling them off every time they fail to slow down for a school or a hospital, if they go through a red light or start before green light comes on . . . it's "Mommie a pedestrian is in the the lane, don't go yet . . " or "Daddy went by the school house too fast and the policeman will get him next time" . . 1:45 p. m. is a good time to see the scooters take off on their miniature highway to encounter the various traffic problems, and here you can see that each driver is in dead earnest to get over the course without a violation . . . students there made a train a week ago of boxwood and scooter wheels, equipped it with bell and whistle, but seems that too many passengers got on for one trip and it collapsed.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT There were 18,769 servings of milk in 18 working days during February at cafeterias of the Campbell Union School district . . . there was an average of 2,159 meals served daily for a total of 38,851 for the 18 days in February and of this number 11,125 were at Campbell Grammar School, 2,816 at Cherry Lane, 3,334 at Cypress, 2,404 at Dover, 5,144 at Hamilton, 4,149 at Moorpark, 1,633 at Quito, 3,520 at Rosemary and 4,720 at San Tomas . . . over at the new Frank Steindorf school, there was food available at the cafeteria but it was prepared at the Cambrian school, account all the equipment was not ready when the school opened Monday . . . 6th grade Girls play day is to be at San Tomas school on May 12 a committee now working out details include, Alene Sasse, Campbell; Al Watson, Cherry Lane; William Petoni, Cypress; Reginald Gearhart, Hamilton; Lavonne Hilscher, Moorpark; Gilman McMillan, Quito and Frances Lenz, San Tomas.

THIS IS THE DAY That Carolyn Coons the Moorpark School teacher has agreed to take down the Christmas tree at her Everett avenue home . . . not a big tree it is quite ornate with tinsel and hoot-nannies so when someone suggested it seemed to be sagging and should be removed right after Jolly Ol' St. Nick had skipped along over the housetops, that did it . . . she ups and said it won't come down until St. Patrick's Day and begorra it hasn't, but . . . . today's the day.

EXACTLY 37 MINUTES from the time an emergency call for an ambulance was sent in to San Jose, one finally got to a North Winchester Road home on Monday morning to find Fireman Bruce Gammon and Police Chief Robert Locke busy with a resuscitator trying to revive a man who had sustained a heart ailment . . in the the meantime an effort was being made at the city hall to locate a doctor but all seemed to be at the hospital . . . Gammon who has done quite a bit of life saving at public beaches worked until his arm muscles swelled with the arrival of the ambulance while Chief Locke rushed back and forth with oxygen.

Bruce Allen May Yield On School Boundary Bill

Assemblyman Bruce Allen, author of AB-1 relating to school and municipal boundaries, may yield to a replacement measure by Assemblyman Donald Doyle of LaFayette and now in committee hearing, if the Doyle bill can be modified to include:

1. Assurance of the permanence of school boundary decisions made during the past two years under A. B. 1.

2. Provision to avoid repeated unification elections in school districts frequently "nicked" by different city annexations.

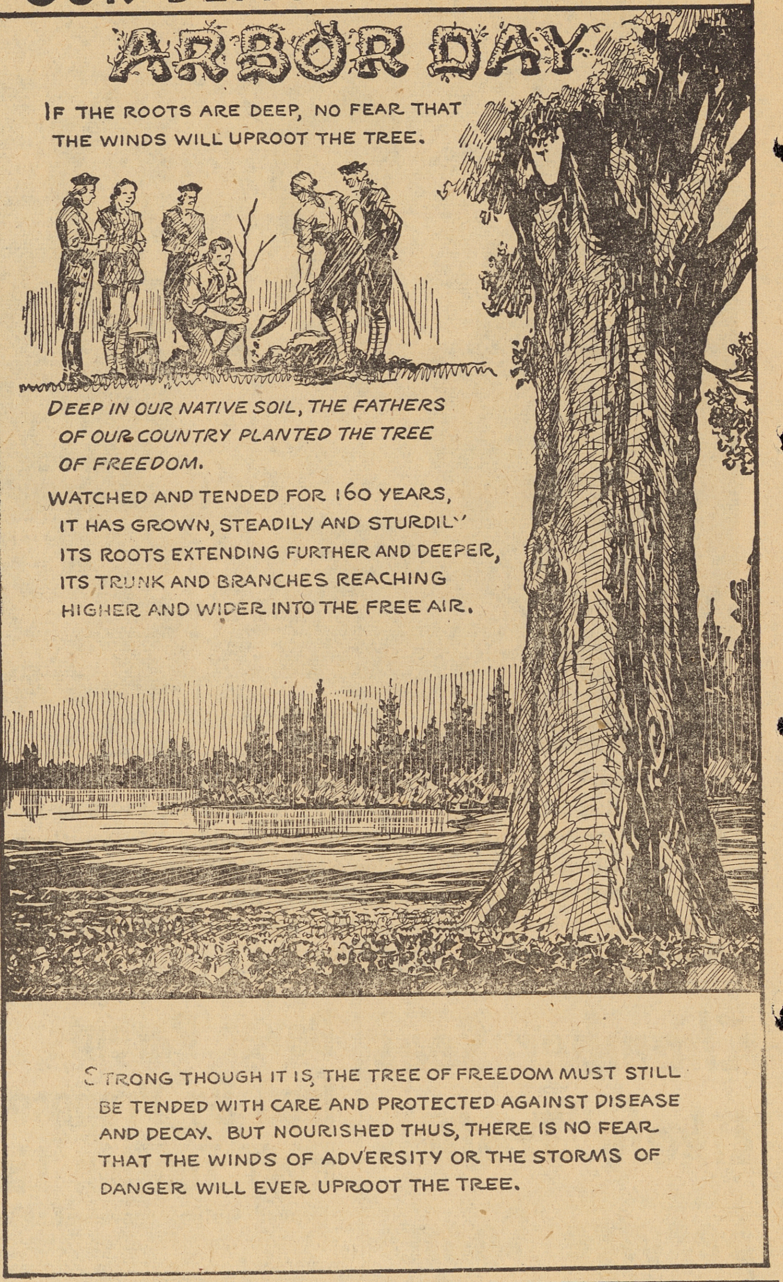
3. Assurance that the county committee on school district organization would not be able to tie up a city annexation indefinitely by failure to act.

4. Assurance that the county committee must reach a decision in regard to any inhabited annexation before the date of the annexation election.

Both bills relate to annexations, the Allen bill by municipal initiative, while in the Doyle bill a unified school district would not become a part of the city school district unless boards of both districts so agree or if a county committee on school districts approved after being so requested by either board.

Superintendent Laurance Hill of the Campbell Union High School was in Sacramento yesterday conferring with legislators on these measures.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat



ARBOR DAY
IF THE ROOTS ARE DEEP, NO FEAR THAT THE WINDS WILL UPROOT THE TREE.
DEEP IN OUR NATIVE SOIL, THE FATHERS OF OUR COUNTRY PLANTED THE TREE OF FREEDOM.
WATCHED AND TENDED FOR 160 YEARS, IT HAS GROWN, STEADILY AND STURDILY ITS ROOTS EXTENDING FURTHER AND DEEPER, ITS TRUNK AND BRANCHES REACHING HIGHER AND WIDER INTO THE FREE AIR.
STRONG THOUGH IT IS, THE TREE OF FREEDOM MUST STILL BE TENDED WITH CARE AND PROTECTED AGAINST DISEASE AND DECAY. BUT NOURISHED THUS, THERE IS NO FEAR THAT THE WINDS OF ADVERSITY OR THE STORMS OF DANGER WILL EVER UPROOT THE TREE.

JOINS SHERIFF'S STAFF

Officer O'Connell who is to join the sheriff staff in April was the man who apprehended a much wanted criminal from Canada in 1953 while a member of the Campbell police force. Officer Casey was warmly commended by the Council at the November 8 meeting for having twice in ten days discovered fires and warning occupants of impending dangers.

it's probably a sign of inadequate wiring!

There you are with the lights on bright—until somebody turns on an appliance. Suddenly, the lights do a quick flicker! This annoyance happens in four out of five homes. Because today's house has more lighting, more appliances than the wiring can provide with adequate current. (This is true even in new homes!) To get full power from the lighting and appliances you have now—or plan to add later—why not see a qualified electrical contractor about adequate wiring for your house?* New wiring as well as appliances can be financed on easy bank terms. If you're building, ask for a "Certificate of Adequate Wiring"—proof of a first-class job.

Roman Banquet Huge Success

With over three hundred people attending, the Roman Banquet proved even better than in the last four years. Parents, senators, the emperor and empress, and slaves met in the girls' gym Saturday evening at the high school.

The evening started off with Toga pinning in which everyone has his or her sheet draped in the fashion of the Roman togas. Although most people wore togas, a few persons, notably Empress Sherry Robinson and Latin Club Advisor Mrs. Flint, donned the gowns the women of Rome sometimes wore, while some of the boys were decked out in the military costume of Ancient Rome. Many of the senators edged their togas in red.

Then after the procession into the gym, the Emperor and Empress made their grand entrance, preceded by dancers, slaves and the fesces carriers.

Finally the six course dinner was begun. First the slaves brought out the relishes, then the fruit cocktail. The main course consiste of roast chicken and roast ham with vegetables. With the main course was served one of the more popular foods. a type of honey bread which everyone enjoyed. The meal was finished off and the entertainment began when several slaves threw dice for the privilege of serving the grape juice.

Marion Harp did an excellent flute solo, after which the gladiators were brought on. Hector Cordova, Chuck Kaffer, Art Lantz and David Schrader were the Latin Club members who staged the realistic, slam-'em, bang-'em fight. Everyone got into the spirit of the thing and shouted for their favorite to win.

History Club To See Ford Exhibit

The Campbell High School History Club is planning to attend the new historical film "Smoke Signal" at an early April date. It is concerned with a battle in 1852 between the Ute Indians and a U. S. army detachment.

Next week the group is to see the traveling exhibit from the Henry Ford Museum, now in San Jose as part of a nationwide tour. The exhibit from the Ford Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan, features such items as the first whale oil lamp of the 1700's, Edison's original light bulb, George Washington's Revolutionary War equipment, and miniatures of American planes from the Wright Brothers' first model to the latest Tiger Jet. The exhibit will be shown in Hale's store in San Jose.

Last week the high school historians heard a talk by Joseph P. Hawthorne, one of the lock operators of the Panama Canal, who was home in Campbell on furlough. Hawthorne colorfully described the canal, gave the group a picture tour of the republic of Panama, and explained why the lock and lake type canal traversing the narrow isthmus is so important to U. S. national defense. The canal now boasts 10,000 transits a year.

Two Canals For Valley Water Supply Planned

Directors for Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District at a meeting Monday evening proposed two canals as distribution circuits for any water piped into the valley from the east, one canal being from existing Coyote-Almaden line to Los Gatos, a distance of eight miles, the other being from the Lexington dam to Saratoga, San Tomas and Calabaras creeks for percolation in west valley areas.

Water in the Lexington Dam would be replaced by water from Coyote. Lexington Dam has a capacity of 25,000 acre feet.

Cost estimates and details on the proposed structures will be ready when engineering studies are completed in the near future, Roll said.

In other action, the directors elected Herman J. Gerdts of Campbell as vice president of the group. J. E. Wiesendanger of Cupertino was elected president.

Tennis Team Is Getting Ready For Busy Season

The Campbell High School Tennis Squad defeated San Jose High 4-1 on the Bulldog Courts last Tuesday with singles victories by Nathan Meleen and Tom Goulding and doubles victories by Campbell teams of Wright and Davis and Wright and Gugat. Bucs lost a 4-1 match to Palo Alto on Friday afternoon with the Campbell doubles team of Kevin Gugat and Mark Wright scoring the lone victory for the local netmen. Dorothy Royce Shows BPWC Slides On Europe

The highlight of the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the Villa Felice last Wednesday evening was the showing of colored slides and a lecture by Mrs. Dorothy Royce, principal of Campbell Grammar School, and Mrs. Frances Cousins, school secretary on their study tour of the Scandinavian countries this past summer.

Their tour covered England, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and parts of Germany where they visited all outstanding historical landmarks and a number of schools and manufacturing companies.

In Denmark they found medieval buildings, sculpture throughout the country and successful cooperative farms and apartment projects. The Danes told them they had found cooperative industry not feasable. In Stockholm they were amazed to find the Russian Navy at anchor in the harbor and were told it was part of Sweden's policy of strict neutrality. The first few days in port the Russians kept to themselves and then began fraternizing with the Swedes, giving dances and concerts along with their propaganda until officials began worrying about the Russians being too congenial.

Mrs. Dorothy Ellis, chairman of vocation and education, will be hostess at the next meeting of the club on March 23 which will be held in the teachers' room of the Rosemary School at 8 p. m. Guest speakers will be Miss Ann Meridier, principal of Cherry Lane School, and Mrs. Alice Schmidt, teacher at Rosemary School, who will discuss "Cooperative Study of Elementary Education in California". Miss Marian Hill will preside.

Girl Scouts Tour Campbell Press

The girls were taken on a conducted tour of the plant and given a brief history of printing and shown how a paper is assembled, made into sheets and put to press, by Cliff Cassiday, plant superintendent. They were also shown how ads are put together with mats and hnd type before printing, and were especially fascinated by workings of the high speed Kluge press.

Ernest Orr Dies; Fireman Gives Aid

Fireman Bruce Gammon and Police Robert Locke rushed a resuscitator to 149 Winchester Road at 9:20 a. m. last Monday morning in response to a call from Mrs. Blanche Orr saying her husband, Ernest, had suddenly fallen to the floor and appeared to be dead.

Upon their arrival Gammon immediately applied the resuscitator to Orr and kept it going until the ambulance arrived at 9:57 a. m. and took him to O'Connor Hospital where he was pronounced dead. While Gammon was trying to revive Orr, Locke made a hasty trip back to the station to pick up another oxygen tank necessary to use while faiting for the ambulance.

Besides his widow Blanche, Orr leaves four children, Mrs. Jean Newman; and Mrs. Marion Van Orden, both of San Jose, Mrs. Katherine Herman of Carson City, Nevada, and Mrs. Frances Higginbotham of Oakland; and a sister, Miss Nellie Orr of Chicago, Illinois. He was a native of Mt. Carmel, Illinois, 64 years of age.

Private funeral services were held yesterday at the Williams Funeral Chapel in San Jose. Interment was in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

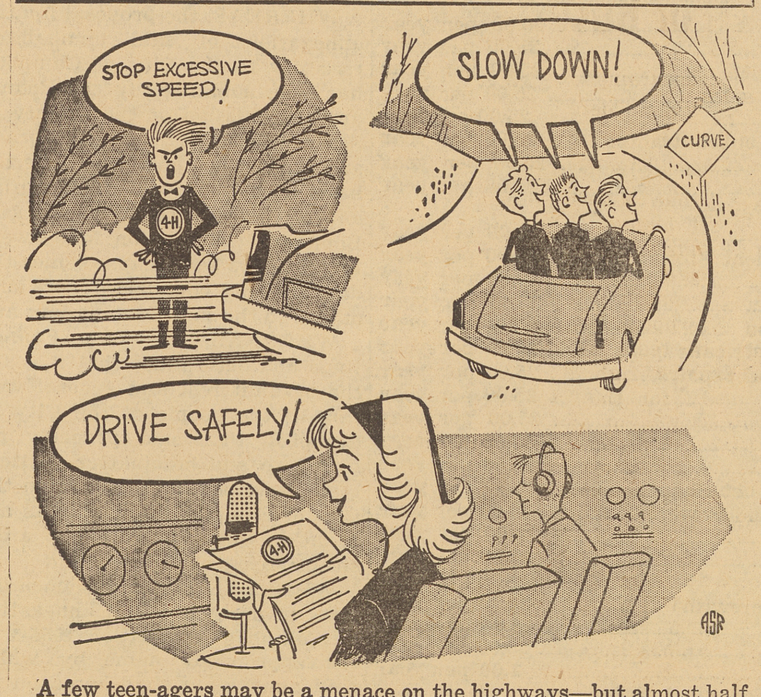
4-H Youths Drive For Safety



A few teen-agers may be a menace on the highways—but almost half a million others are working daily to protect your life on the road.

That's what newsmen learned when they interviewed winners in the 1954 National 4-H Safety Program recently at the 33rd National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Eight national winners received $300 college scholarships from General Motors, Safety Program awards donor. GM also provided all-expense trips to the Club Congress for national and state winners.

"Sure, some teen-agers are reckless drivers," said Jim Messerschmitt, 19, Elizabeth, Colorado, a national winner. "That's all the more reason why a lot of us feel teen-agers must take the lead in fighting for safer roads and safer driving."

At last count, more than 486,000 youngsters took part in the Safety Program. That compares with 78,000 just before GM became awards donor 10 years ago.

Although the program is concerned with farm and home as well as highway safety, participants are giving more and more emphasis to saving lives and property on the road.

Young Messerschmitt, for example, helped plan the first Teen-Age Traffic Association in the nation and in 1954 attended the White House Conference on Highway Safety.

Thousands of other young crusaders for road safety have organized safe driving clubs, given radio talks on highway hazards, placed safety posters in store windows and encouraged public officials to erect warning signs at highway danger spots.

Some youngsters, like Sara Ellen Phillips, 17, Midville, Ga., had their interest in traffic safety spurred by accidents that struck close to home. Sara Ellen began the work that led to a national 4-H award after three of her school mates were killed in a highway accident.

Contributions to highway safety also helped win national awards for Peggy Pfefferkorn, 18, West Friendship, Md.; Norlene Lawson, 19, Kenyon, Minn.; Jack Martin, 20, Gardnerville, Nev.; Ella Blossom, 18, Hoffman, N. C.; Ralph Ray Swinford, Jr., 17, Wichita Falls, Texas; and Florene Richardson, 17, Cedar City, Utah.

Remember their names next time someone talks about teen-agers running wild on the roads—and remember the 4-H safety army, half a million strong.

EXPLORER CREW GO ON A SKI FROLIC

On the trip were Scouts Jerry Henley, Doug Doud, Art Hill, Larry Webber, Bill Maxfield; Scoutmaster L. M. Dodd and Explorer Adivsor Ken Robison. It was also a birthday party for Larry Webber.

Rotary First Of Service Clubs

Great events often have insignificant beginnings. So it was with Rotary. The service club idea was pioneered on the night of February 23, 1905, when four men met in a Chicago business office. One was a lawyer, one was a mining engineer, one was a coal dealer. For several years the lawyer, Paul P. Harris, had been thinking about organizing a club which would be based on the idea that men in business and the professions could be personal friends. That night these four Chicagoans agreed to launch this unique organization, which was destined to become one of the most potent world-wide movements of modern times.

Other men were quick to recognize the worth of the new organization and it grew rapidly. The name "Rotary" was selected as originally the members met in rotation in their various places of business. Soon Rotary Clubs were organized in other cities throughout the United States, and the idea spread to Canada, Europe, South America, Asia, Africa, and Australia. By 1922, Rotary had encircled the world with Rotary Clubs on the six continents banded together as Rotary International.

Shortly after the organization of the first Rotary Club, it was realized that Rotary could serve a wider purpose than its original aim of promoting understanding and fellowship among its members. Rotary soon became a factor for the promotion of many different types of community-betterment activities, for constructive work with crippled children and underprivileged children, and for the promotion of high standards in business and professional practices.

As the Rotary ideas of friendship and service to others spread from country to country, Rotary's worldwide fellowship of business and professional men became a powerful force for the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace.

This week, just 50 years after the founding of the first Rotary Club by four young men in Chicago, there are 8,400 Rotary Clubs located in 89 countries of the free world. From the original four members, the organization has grown to 400,000 Rotarians, differing widely in language, customs and economic, political and religious concepts but united in their devotion to the Rotary ideal of service to mankind.

These dividends will be paid on 15,000 shares of stock to some 250 shareholders, most of whom are residents of the Santa Clara Valley.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How spiritual understanding of God brings freedom and happiness will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" will include the account of Moses' call from God to free the children of Israel from bondage.

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (200: 4): "Moses advanced a nation to the worship of God in Spirit instead of matter, and illustrated the grand human capacities of being bestowed by immortal Mind".

The Golden Text is from John (6:63): "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing."

Controlled Comfort From Your Car Heater

By Mary Lou Chapman

Modern cars are warmer than igloos, but it wasn't always so. In the earliest days of motoring, heating your car in cold weather was a problem. If you did not put your vehicle up on blocks in the barn for the winter, your only alternative was to bundle up as snugly as possible. Many of the earliest automobiles had no roofs, so there you were right out in the open.

Fur coats were quite inexpensive then, and you needed one. You could get a warm fur coat for $100, and sometimes less! Opossum and raccoon were favorites with men. The ladies went for coats of beaver, sealskin and moleskin.

Miss Chapman

Women always wore hats while motoring, and in winter, a warm scarf was tied over the chapeau and under the chin. Fur capes and muffs were popular. Merchants offered the daring winter motorist all kinds of ear flaps, knitted mufflers, bonnets, coveralls, gauntlet gloves of leather lined with fur, long underwear, "arctics" up to the knees, and even bearskin rugs.

Some of the auto robes or rugs were quite ingenious in design. One for the front seat was to be tucked around both driver and passenger, with four holes on the driver's side for hands and feet.

First Car Heaters

Early car heaters were not too satisfactory. At first, there were some carry-overs from the buggy era. Bricks or smooth stones were heated in the oven at home, then wrapped in a blanket, and placed at your feet.

In 1902 a charcoal heater was developed for the automobile. Charcoal bricks were heated on a stove and placed in the car heater, which was a long oval metal "oven" on the floor of the car. This had adjustable ventilators, and you put your feet on top of it. This heater would keep your feet warm from 3 to 5 hours.

Winter Comfort Now

Today we are pampered. In just a few moments after entering the car, the heat begins to pour in.

How do modern heaters work? Really very simply. As your engine heats up, the water in the engine cooling system gets hot, too. This heated water is directed through a series of radiator-like coils in the heater. A fan sends fresh air over the coils which have been heated by the hot water from the engine. This warmed air is directed into your car interior, with both volume and temperature controls right at your fingertips!

And the more your engine heats up, the warmer you get. Quite an improvement over hot bricks.

DOUBLE SESSIONS OFF AS A NEW SCHOOL OPENS

Except for the kindergarten classes at the Cambrian and the new Steindorf schools, double sessions were off this week as 377 students entered the ten classrooms at Steindorf school, Kenneth Norberg, principal at the new school said yesterday. Albert A. Vatuone was named vice-principal. Before the term is over Norberg expects the enrollment will be over 400 so it is likely a double session class will be set up.

A mobile unit is bringing warm food from Cambrian School cafeteria for the next two weeks until the Steindorf facilities are ready. The food is warmed before servings.

Vote on the tax increase proposal was 824 yes and 411 no, in the final count with 8 absentee votes to be counted tonight. Delos Bagby, superintendent of Cambrian School district was elated over the success of the vote and said that the schools are now assured of having all necessary supplies and equipment. The increase was from a 90c limit set in 1927 to $1.50.

CAMPBELL AREA SERVICE FUND GETS $1670 FROM WELFARE COUNCIL

A momentous occasion for the Campbell Community Area Service Fund on Tuesday was the presentation of a $1670 check to Miss Carolyn Coons, president of the organization, and Mrs. Harry Story, campaign manager, by Harry Silverstein, campaign director of the Community Welfare Council of Santa Clara County.

The check represents 20% of the $8,349.20 funds collected in the Campbell area by the Community Area Service Fund drive which the Welfare Council of United Givers Plan agreed to contribute. The Welfare Council arrived at this percentage by assuming that 20% of San Jose workers live in the Campbell area and have contributed funds to the United Givers Plan while working in San Jose.

At the present time two of the receiving agencies of the Campbell Community Area Service Fund have been paid in full the amount requested. They are the School Milk and Lunch Fund which received $1,800; and the Campbell Library which received $500. All other seven receiving agencies will receive approximately 46 per cent of the amount originally allocated to them from the remaining funds.

Because the Campbell fund raising drive fell far short of the $19,600 goal set it has been found necessary to allot less than half of the amount of money originally specified for the remaining seven agencies who are: The Visiting Nurse Association, Campfire Girls, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Family Service Association, and United Defense Fund.

The Campbell Area Service Fund was officially disbanded last month and is now in the process of dispensing funds and setting up a skeleton organization which is to decide how an $1800 surplus fund is to be allotted, and also nominate delegates to serve on the board of the Community Welfare Council of Santa Clara County of which Campbell will now be affiliated. Each of the nine receiving agencies has been asked to appoint a representative to serve with this new skeleton organization which will hold its first meeting March 28.

The two delegates from Campbell to serve on the Welfare Council are Miss Carolyn Coons, and Mrs. Dorothy Ellis.
